Summary

Computer Science and Engineering student with a focused passion for Data Science, Full Stack Development, and Web 3.0 technologies. I leverage innovative solutions to tackle complex challenges while enhancing user experiences through thoughtful design and implementation. My commitment to continuous learning is demonstrated through active open-source contributions, including completing all levels of Hacktoberfest 2024. I thrive on applying theoretical knowledge to real-world scenarios, combining technical expertise with a proactive mindset to drive meaningful impact in the evolving technology landscape.
