WORK EXPERIENCE

APP DEVELOPER

Gyanoda

I'm the tech lead and app developer for Gyanoda (www.gyanoda.com), a comprehensive educational platform developed by Study Bloom 24 for students preparing for the WBJEE. The app leverages React Native to deliver in-depth video lessons, practice sets from previous exams, personalized mock tests, and real-time doubt resolution, offering a holistic and responsive study experience. I lead the technical team, ensuring a seamless, user-centered design and robust functionality tailored to student success.
